

You can have it all

at the University of Vermont Medical Center and the Department of Family Medicine at the Larner College of Medicine

Here, you'll have the best of all worlds — an academic appointment and a university-based practice in a progressive and rural setting. Experience robust teaching and leadership opportunities across a broad clinical spectrum, including rural medicine, obstetrics, sports medicine and behavioral health in our patient-centered medical homes, as well as academic urgent care and hospitalist roles. We seek a rich, diverse workforce and encourage you to explore our Family Medicine department and the wonderful state of Vermont!

Experience welcoming, four-season family communities with thriving local arts, music, food and recreational cultures.

Join a dynamic, supportive team committed to patient care, academic growth and professional advancement.

Tailor your journey to your professional expertise and interests.

Recharge with easy access to hiking, biking, skiing and other outdoor sports.

Enjoy quiet, rural living close to the city: two hours to Montreal, four hours to Boston.
