Make an impact with a fast-paced, fast-growing medical test prep leader!

Pastest is currently recruiting medical students to join our faculty of writers to work on a number of exciting USMLE test prep projects.

What are the benefits?

- Competitive remuneration.
- Make an impact on the lives of medical students by helping us to create and deliver next generation medical education products.
- What are the requirements?
- We have opportunities for Step 1 and Step 2 CK writers; to be considered, you will have scored highly on the exam on which you would like to write.
- Excellent written communication skills.
- You are highly motivated and have a genuine passion for medicine and education.

If you want to learn more about the opportunities and you're interested in working with us, please contact brad.fallon@pastest.com
